

Left to right: Carly and daughter with DIVA's Roxy Bourdillon and Carrie Lyell

DIVA CATCHES UP WITH OUR WEDDING COMPETITION WINNERS 12 MONTHS ON WORDS CARRIE LYELL

Two years ago, DIVA teamed up with Shotgun Weddings (shotgunweddings.co) on a very special competition to bag a wedding worth £15,000. The winners, Emma and Carly from Kent, moved the judges to tears with their heart-wrenching story of finding love after tragedy and, in November 2018, Team DIVA travelled to Brighton for their beautiful wedding, which was filled with love and laughs. We caught up with them ahead of their first anniversary to find out how marriage has changed them.

DIVA: How has your first year of married life been?

EMMA AND CARLY: Our first year as wives has been very busy! We enjoyed a wonderful "familymoon" with our children straight after the wedding. We were very lucky to also enjoy a week's honeymoon, just the two of us, in Sardinia. Carly returned back to work after a year's maternity leave and our little girl started nursery. We have been fortunate to also enjoy a couple of family-friendly festivals as well as attending The LGBT Mummies Tribe meetup in Essex. We are also trying for another baby, so are hoping to extend our family in the very near future.

>>>

PHOTOS: EMMA JOANNE / SHOTGUN WEDDINGS